For BBVA Research, the expectections are positive

We expect that on 2014 the Government will use the investment as an adjustment variable for the fiscal rule compliance.

Employment: indicators are stable, despite the deceleration

A change on the monetary policy is expected on the second quarter of the 2014.

Consumer inflation would be below 3% in 2014

Forecast: 4.7% GDP growth on 2014.

Political enviorment: 2014 elections and legal stability (Courthouse and legislative changes) could affect the banks results.

BBVA's decentralized model

Centralized model: Branch office

One

The Headquarters and the branches are managed as one unit.

- Complete responsability of the Headquarters in the committees
- Legally connected entities

Two

Free cash flow:

Centralized funded to maximze the economies of scale.

Three Centralized managment of the capital

Investment Banking

Decentralized model: Subsidiaries.

One

Headquarter and subsidiaries completely independent

- Separate legal entities
- Headquarters has no obligation to respond for the subsidiary

Two

Subsidiary is 100% self - sufficent: Funded under its own brand and rating.

Three

Self – capital managment Each Subsidiary manage its instruments independently.

Retail Banking

The BBVA's model: "Global thinking, local action"

Advantages of the discentralized BBVA model in capital and liquidity

Barriers between the Headquarter and subsidiaries

Resistence during the crisis situation

- Natural protection in crisis situations
- ✓ Limited centagion risk

Local regulation/ Headquarter supervision and control

Clarity and responsability in the markets through the thel Know how

- Subsidiaries subject to local supervision and required regulations
- Subsidiaries fallow global group policies on liquidity and capital management.

Local risk/ Market price

Market discipline.

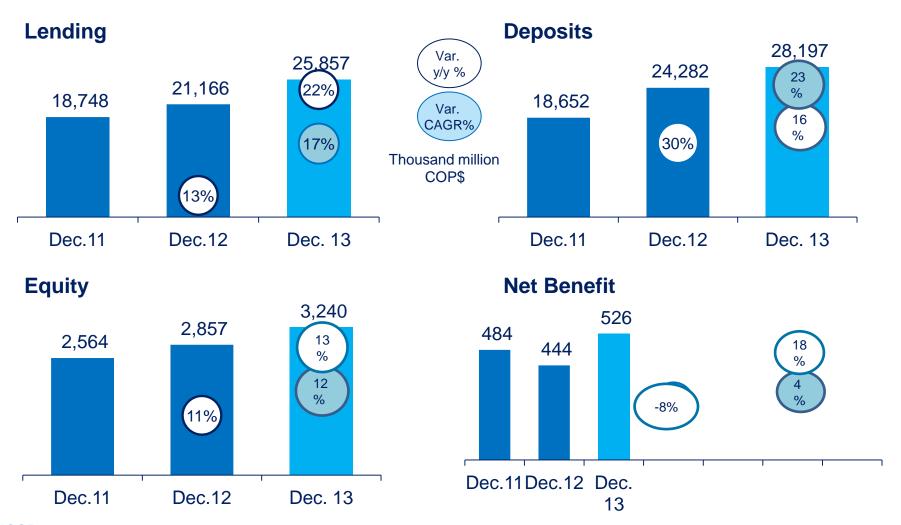

- ✓ Insta group transactions are made under strict market conditions.
- Prevention of unfair growth based on preferred head office (matrix) price, avoding price distortion.

Right incentives

... Committed with the development of the Country.

High growth in activities and results on BBVA Colombia.
